

Legal Aspects of Multilateral Development Bank Operations

With an Asian Development Bank Perspective

Overview:

The course will examine the legal aspects of multilateral development bank (MDB) operations through their three primary roles as international organizations, financiers and development institutions. Examples will be drawn from the Asian Development Bank to offer a more operational and regional perspective.

Lecturer:

Cheong-Ann Png, Assistant General Counsel, Office of the General Counsel, ADB. Cheong-Ann leads the ADB legal team for sovereign lending operations in Southeast Asia, Central Asia, Afghanistan, Pakistan and the Caucasus region.
